Hey Fortnite friends, in our latest state of development we mentioned that we have a new system of heroes in the works. We are excited to announce that these changes to the heroes system will be in the V8.00 update! More¹ heroes, more¹ combinations The current Hero Squad uses three slots: hero, support and tactical. The new Hero Loadout ² is composed of seven components: a commander, five members of the support team and a team advantage. Even heroes no longer have¹ a full set of static benefits that define their gameplay. Instead, they focused on a specific advantage and you can mix advantages to best fit your style of play. The hero's load will give you the tools to play your way. Let him go! The commander of the commander ³ is the hero you will play as during the mission. This hero will determine⁴ Your capabilities, class advantages (plus⁵ over later!) And Commander Perk. Commander Perk unlocks when a hero is evolved into 2 stars and A is a serious upgrade to standard advantage. Your commander plays an important role in your cargo while the commander has a severe punch. Use this to push your load to its limits! Support Team The support team ⁶ is the backbone of your cargo. Any hero in a support team slot will guarantee you their standard advantage is eight percent of their statistics. ⁷ A hero you will be able to use your Hero collection to build creative loads. There are 5 slots of the support team, so you'll have many options to customize your build according to your preferences. You can play as a sniper-focused builder or a soldier with the most⁸ rigged command you can assemble; the choice ⁹ is yours! True class each class has a number of class advantages that make up the shared strokes of each class. If you are playing a builder you should always feel like one, but ¹⁰ A is important for us that The tools to express the way you play a manufacturer. The class advantages establish the nucleus of each class of heroes without putting unnecessary restrictions on game choices. For example, B.A.S.E. It was converted converted Perk. As a result, all Constructors can access B.A.S.E. through their trap wheel. You¹¹ will recognize most of the Class Perks as they previously existed in some form, however they¹² will be tweaked to better fit their new role. For some this means reworked or additional functionality, while others were simply tuned and adjusted. For example, In The Zone is an Outlander Class Perk and it includes the functionality of the old Keen Eyes perk by default.Team Perk Team Perks will test the strength of your collection, but among them are some of the most powerful, build-defining effects in the game. These perks are¹³ attached to a hero, but are instead selected from a list of your unlocked Team Perks. When you first unlock the Team Perk slot, you¹⁴ will also unlock 4 Team Perks. We can¹⁵ wait to see the creative loadouts you put together! These perks are special because you¹⁶ will be able to activate them by fulfilling specific criteria with your support team.Team Perks have the potential to significantly change the way you play, but you¹⁷ will have to get your loadout just right! Here are some examples: Soaring Mantis: ¹⁸ Mantis Leap allows 2 extra jump(s). Requires: 3 Ninja¹⁹ One Two Punch: ²⁰ For each hero with 2 or more stars, your next heavy attack after using an ability costs 20% less energy.²¹ 20 Team Perks have been added as part of the introduction of the Hero Loadout . You²² will also recognize several existing perks that have been converted to Team Perks. If Team Perks are²³ on your heroes, how do you get them? Here²⁴ is one way:Mythic Heroes Mythic heroes have a special role in the Hero Loadout. The thing that sets mythic heroes apart is they always grant you access to a new, unique Team Perk when you acquire them. Future mythic heroes may even require that you complete a quest for them before they teach your team new combat tricks! This won²⁵ be the only way to acquire new Team Perks, but it²⁶ is definitely a significant one.
